

Cultural arts,
like music, dance
and songs, are commonly used in indigenous peoples' protest
actions.

Intramuros, Manila (2007).
Urban environments remain harsh ecologies for most people.
Unaccountable governments pressure those who strive just to survive.

Baguio, Philippines
(2007). Interspersed within the politics of survival is the priceless beauty for those who care to gaze responsibly
at nature.

Philippines (2007).
The extraordinary metaphors of feminist political ecology exist in our ordinary everyday lives.

Marvic Leonen is the father of a four-year old daughter. His work as a public interest lawyer, an associate professor of law and his keen interest in seeing meaning led him to photography.

